

PRESENTER

Mark von Dadelszen, Barrister, Hastings

Mark's societies' and charities' knowledge and skills are based on years of experience in the governance of, and advice to, a wide range of community organisations and in local government entities, as well as experience during his professional career in other areas of law relevant to societies and charities. He has, since 1972, been a partner of a legal firm in Hastings which has a long tradition of partners' service in governance roles in and in providing legal advice to community organisations.

Mark's experience led him to write and self-publish a book about meeting procedure, Members' Meetings in 1995 (now in its third edition), followed by writing Law of Societies in New Zealand (now in its second edition, 2009). Since 2010 he has been writing regular articles on societies, charities and meeting procedure in the fortnightly NZLawyer magazine. Mark is currently a member of the Law Commission's "Incorporated Society Act Review Project Reference Group."
