

PRESENTERS

Susie Kilty, Buddle Findlay, Wellington

Susie is a partner in Buddle Findlay's public law team. She specialises in providing practical advice on competition and consumer legislation, including the Commerce Act, Fair Trading Act and Consumer Guarantees Act. Susie regularly assists clients to engage with the Commerce Commission when clients are faced with compliance issues within the Commission's jurisdiction, and conducted training to assist traders to proactively identify potential risk areas.

Rae Nield, Rae Nield Marketing Law, Auckland

Rae has Masters Degrees in Science and Jurisprudence as well as a postgraduate diploma in librarianship. After a business career ranging from information services to sales, marketing and general management roles, she studied law and has since worked as a commercial lawyer, specialising in the law applicable to the marketing of retail goods and services. Rae works with traders throughout the supply chain. Since 1985, she has carried out a substantial amount of law reform work, including making extensive submissions on the Consumer Law Reform Bill. Rae is a member of the New Zealand Law Society Commercial and Business Law Committee.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
