

PRESENTERS

Jenny Beck, Jenny Beck Law, Dunedin

Jenny has practised law since 1990, initially as a solicitor and then as a partner of Caudwells Solicitors in Dunedin. In 2001 she set up her own firm Jenny Beck Law and now employs seven solicitors, their principal practice areas being family, commercial/conveyancing and employment law. She has been involved in the Law Society for many years, having been a member of the ODLS and then the Branch Council, the Otago Women Lawyers' Society and various national committees, eg Ethics and Legal Services. She was the convener of the pre-2008 Complaints Committee and has enjoyed and derived great benefit from her membership of the Otago Standards Committee since 2008.

Duncan Webb, Lane Neave, Christchurch

Duncan has practised law since 1989. He has also taught in law schools in the United States and New Zealand including a distinguished career as a former professor of law. Between 2008 and 2010 Duncan held a quasi-judicial appointment within the Ministry of Justice as Legal Complaints Review Officer. He was closely involved in the preparation of the new Rules of Professional Conduct and Client Care; recently presented on Client Care for the New Zealand Law Society; is the author of Ethics Professional Responsibility and the Lawyer, and regularly speaks to professional groups on issues of ethics and professional conduct.

Acknowledgement

Jenny Beck thanks Brooke White for her assistance with the preparation of her paper.
