

PRESENTERS

Mark Colthart, Barrister, Auckland

Mark is a barrister specialising in commercial litigation, arbitration, and construction law. Admitted to the bar in 1994, he has practised as a barrister since 2006. Mark is a Fellow and Council Member of the Arbitrators' & Mediators' Institute of New Zealand, and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. He is an adjudication and arbitration panel member of the Building Disputes Tribunal, and sits as a member of the Property Disputes Committee of the ADLSI. Mark regularly acts as counsel in commercial litigation in the High Court, appeals to the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court, in commercial arbitrations, in adjudications under the Construction Contracts Act, and in proceedings in the Weathertight Homes Tribunal. He also accepts appointment as an Arbitrator under the Arbitration Act, and as an Adjudicator under the Construction Contracts Act.

Royden Hindle, Barrister, Auckland

Royden is an experienced commercial arbitrator and mediator. He was a litigation partner at Simpson Grierson before moving to the bar in 1996. He became a Fellow of the Arbitrators' and Mediators' Institute of New Zealand in 2001. Between 2002 and 2011 Royden chaired the Human Rights Review Tribunal; since returning to practice he has regularly been engaged as arbitrator in a wide variety of commercial matters. He also acts as an adjudicator under the Construction Contracts Act 2002. He is a member of both the Arbitration and Mediation Panels of the Institute; a Principal Arbitrator, Evaluator & Mediator with the New Zealand Disputes Resolution Centre; and a LEADR-accredited mediator.
