

PRESENTER

Claire Keenan, The Training Practice, Wellington

Claire is a communication specialist with expertise in coaching people to prepare for and handle difficult conversations. She has developed, and successfully delivered, challenging conversations programmes with government agencies and the private sector. Additionally, Claire has worked with senior teams to facilitate the challenging conversations they need to have. She has a warm and engaging style. Coupled with this, she has a practical approach, backed up by sound theory.

Cover and text stocks used in this publication are from Forestry Stewardship Council certified mills, manufactured under the environmentally responsible paper manufactured environmental management system ISO 14001, using pulp from well managed forests and other controlled sources.

Contents

Learning objectives	2
Before the webinar	3
Are difficult conversations crucial?	4
What makes a conversation 'difficult'?	5
Some key principles of courageous conversations	6
Manage your mindset.....	7
Talk Straight.....	8
Radical Candor	9
Be curious and respectful.....	10
Listen. Really Listen.....	14
Questions, questions, questions	15
Dealing with emotions.....	17
Start the conversation	18
End the conversation	19
Planning your conversation template	20
Bibliography	21
Appendix: Difficult Conversations - different approaches	22