

PRESENTERS

Bridget Smith, SBM Legal, Auckland

Bridget is a specialist employment adviser on the full range of employment law and health and safety issues for employers and senior individuals. Who's Who Legal International rate her as a leading expert and Chambers and Partners describe Bridget as someone who seeks the solution and not the fight. She has advocacy experience at all levels and regularly appears in the specialist employment jurisdictions. Bridget also appeared as counsel in the Royal Commission of Inquiry into the Pike River Mine Tragedy.

Andrea Twaddle, Davidson, Twaddle Isaac Lawyers Limited, Hamilton

Andrea is a director of DTI Lawyers and an employment law specialist. She represents both employer and employee clients. Andrea is an experienced advocate within the employment jurisdiction. She has a reputation for providing pragmatic, commercially focused advice, and is called upon as a regular commentator and presenter to industry and professional groups regarding topical employment law issues. Andrea's advisory and advocacy work includes resolving workplace disputes, restructuring, disciplinary investigations, breaches of confidentiality, and restraints of trade, tailoring contractual and policy documentation and managing health and safety matters.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such.
