CHAIR

Gillian Service, MinterEllisonRuddWatts, Auckland

Gillian leads the Auckland practice of MinterEllisonRuddWatts' national employment team. Gillian is passionate about the interface between technology, privacy and employment laws, and how technological advancement is changing the way we work.

Although she now calls New Zealand home, Gillian originally hails from Scotland. Her ties to the legal profession go further back than you might imagine. Her Scottish clan (Service) hailed from Drymen (part of the Stirling Clan) and were (according to some historical sources) lawyers to Robert the Bruce, King of Scots.

INTERNATIONAL AND KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Alex Hagan, Kienco, Melbourne, Australia

Based in Melbourne, Australia, futurist Alex has worked with governments, corporations, and individuals on six continents to create a vision and plan for the future of their industries, organisations, and workforces.
