

PRESENTERS

Tony Davis, Director & Principal, Lyne Davis Opinion, Auckland

Tony is a director and principal of Lyne Davis Opinion with more than 20 years' accounting and corporate finance experience. A significant portion of his time is spent on relationship property expert opinions including business and share valuations, economic disparity, bundle of rights and trust claims. Tony is an experienced expert witness in the areas of economic damages assessments, forensic accounting, valuation and other financial matters. He has regularly appeared as an expert witness in the High Court, Family Court and other tribunals. Tony has also presented and co-presented numerous valuation courses on behalf of the New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants (and now Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand) as part of its continuing education programme for members.

Robyn von Keisenberg, Barrister, Wyndham Chambers, Auckland

Robyn is a family law specialist with over 30 years' experience. She has developed a broad practice with special interest in relationship property and trust disputes; estate litigation and disputes involving capacity issues under mental health legislation and Protection of Personal Property Rights Act and other related elder law issues.

Robyn represents children in trust disputes, in estate litigation and under the Care of Children Act. She is a Deputy Convenor on the Mental Health Review Tribunal and is currently a committee member of the Medico-Legal Society.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
