

PRESENTER

James Coleman, Terrace Chambers, Wellington

James specialises in tax litigation and advice. He has appeared in over 140 reported tax cases at all levels of the Court system in the past 25 years. James is the author of Tax Avoidance Law in New Zealand and has written a tax column for the New Zealand Law Journal. He is also a teaching fellow at the University of Auckland Law School.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.

Cover and text stocks used in this publication are from Forestry Stewardship Council certified mills, manufactured under the environmentally responsible paper manufactured environmental management system ISO 14001, using pulp from well managed forests and other controlled sources.
