

PRESENTERS

Moira Green, Barrister, North Shore, Auckland

Moira is a family lawyer with 24 years' experience. She is also a mediator. Moira is committed to good outcomes for children. She likes to think that as a profession, lawyers working with clients after the split, understand their own emotional functioning, and the basics of conflict resolution, so that they can assist parties to de-escalate any conflict and help focus clients on resolutions that mean that parties can communicate effectively going forward.

Jennifer Perry, Barrister, Wyndham Chambers, Auckland

Jennifer is a family barrister with a background in civil litigation. She has a particular interest in collaborative law and creative problem solving with a view to creating the best possible outcomes for all family members following separation and which sees both parties able to move forward with dignity and independence.
