

PRESENTERS

Ian Fay, Deloitte New Zealand, Wellington

Ian is a Chartered Accountant and Chartered Tax Advisor with over 18 years of New Zealand tax experience (and 10 years United Kingdom experience). His work includes providing transaction support, tax advisory and tax compliance services to a wide range of clients.

Ian often advises clients on choice of business structure and changes to business structures to accommodate growth, international expansion and different operating models. His clients are mainly small- and medium-sized businesses including some social enterprises and a number of co-operatives.

Rebecca Green, Buddle Findlay, Christchurch

Rebecca specialises in financial markets regulation, financial product offerings and advice, corporate statutory/regulatory compliance, banking products and structuring/governance matters.

Her clients include companies and co-operative companies, a wide range of financial institutions and financial service providers (including bank and non-bank lenders, deposit-takers, financial advisers and brokers) and those issuing financial products.

Roz Henry, Cooperative Business New Zealand, Auckland

Cooperative Business New Zealand is the peak body representing New Zealand's member-owned businesses whose members sit across a breadth of industries, including Fonterra, Foodstuffs, Mitre10, ITM, FMG, SBS, Southern Cross, ProCare and PaperPlus.

Roz took up the role of CEO in 2019 with her founding career having been with the New Zealand Dairy Board (Fonterra) throughout the 90's, followed by 15 years management consulting both in New Zealand and Europe. Her more recent experience is working in regional government at Auckland's economic development agency Auckland Unlimited in their international investment team.

Alastair Hercus, Buddle Findlay, Wellington

Alastair specialises in corporate and public law. He has worked with co-operatives and mutuals for over 25 years.

Alastair played a major role in the drafting of the Co operative Companies Act 1996. He has advised on the establishment and operation of numerous co-operatives, large and small, in various sectors ranging from financial services to the primary sector. Alastair has worked with Cooperative Business New Zealand for many years on regulatory and legislative issues affecting co-operatives.
