PRESENTER

Amy Ryburn, Buddle Findlay, Wellington

Amy specialises in commercial contracting and procurement, particularly in relation to large-scale technology projects. She drafts and negotiates commercial contracts for technology projects and a wide range of other commercial agreements, such as strategic alliances, IP commercialisation agreements, publishing agreements, services agreements and consumer terms and conditions. Amy has a particular interest in how commercial contracts can better allocate risk to reflect how parties expect risk to be managed in practice.

The statements and conclusions contained in this book are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This book has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
