

PRESENTERS

Vanessa Bruton QC, TEP, O'Connell Chambers, Auckland

Vanessa is a litigator, practising almost exclusively in trust and estate disputes, including where relationship property is involved. She has been counsel in a number of the leading cases over recent years. Vanessa went to the independent bar in 2014 and took silk in 2016. For more about her, see www.trust-litigation.co.nz

Sharon Chandra, Barrister, Bankside Chambers, Auckland

Sharon practises in all areas of family law, with a specialist focus on relationship property and trust litigation. She is a contributor to Westlaw and has presented at a number of legal seminars held by NZLS CLE and other organisations. In addition to her appointment as a regional representative of the NZLS Family Law Section, Sharon has published family law articles in various publications and is interviewed by media outlets to comment on family law issues. According to Doyles Guide 2021, she has been named as one of the recommended leading family and relationship property lawyers in New Zealand.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
