

CHAIR

Costas Matsis, Gault Mitchell Law, Wellington

Costas is the Managing Partner at Gault Mitchell Law, a mid-sized general practice firm in Wellington. He specialises in civil litigation and dispute resolution, including in the areas of family, employment and contract law.

SPEAKERS

Chris Dellabarca, Wellington Family Law Chambers, Wellington

Chris has been in practice since 1995. He had several years in general practice (12), including family law, before joining Wellington Family Law in 2007 (now Wellington Family Law Chambers). Chris has specialised exclusively in family law since then and is a senior lawyer for child. In 2018, he was appointed to the Independent Ministerial Panel which reviewed the 2014 changes to family justice services and was an author of the subsequent report, Te Korowai Ture ā-Whanau, which was published in June 2019.

Caroline Hannan, Wellington Family Law Chambers, Wellington

Caroline was admitted to the Bar in August 1991. She initially practised in Gisborne before moving to Wellington in 1999. Caroline joined Wellington Family Law as a partner in 2002, and went to the independent Bar (along with the other partners in the firm) in October 2019. She has extensive past experience in most areas of practice, but has specialised exclusively in family law since 2002.

Lynell Tuffery Huria, Kāhui Legal, Wellington

Lynell (Ngāti Ruanui, Ngāruahine Rangī, Ngā Rauru Kīitahi) is Managing Partner at Kāhui Legal, and works with a range of Māori clients focussing on the overlap between indigenous intellectual property rights and the intellectual property system, including protecting cultural icons and exploring new and inventive ways of assisting these clients.

Kevin Lenahan, Greg Kelly Law, Wellington

Kevin is a specialist trusts and estates litigator and mediator (AMINZ Associate) who, in addition, is the NZLS Property Law Section's The Property Lawyer trusts and estates columnist.

Michael O'Flaherty, Gibson Sheat, Wellington

Michael specialises in property law, with a particular focus on commercial leasing. He acts for Crown Agencies with significantly large leasing portfolios and is well versed in the latest leasing trends and issues.

Ruvin Pattiaratchi, Dentons Kensington Swan, Wellington

Ruvin is a Senior Associate at Dentons Kensington Swan. He provides advice on a broad range of employment law and health and safety matters.

Brittany Peck, John Miller Law, Wellington

Brittany specialises in ACC law, particularly mental injury and treatment injury claims appearing from review level to the Court of Appeal. She also practices in the criminal, mental health, and civil jurisdictions. Brittany is a member of the NZLS ACC Committee and is a volunteer lawyer at Wellington Community Law Centre.

Zoë Westlake, Gault Mitchell Law, Wellington

Zoë is a Senior Solicitor at Gault Mitchell Law. She enjoys a variety of private client work but it was her study on the rights of the deceased and posthumous harm for her Philosophy honours at Victoria University of Wellington that inspired her specialisation in deceased estates.
