

PRESENTERS

Douglas Ewen, Brandon Street Chambers, Wellington

Douglas practices in the field of human rights law, ranging from civil cases against the state for false imprisonment, mistreatment of detainees, unlawful searches and breaches of the Bill of Rights, to public and professional negligence cases. He practices in most areas of serious crime, but with a particular focus on appeals to the High Court, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court.

Tim Smith, Thorndon Chambers, Wellington

Tim has over 20 years of experience in litigation, acting for both commercial and public sector clients, and has appeared as counsel in a number of New Zealand's leading cases in the fields of public law, tort, contractual interpretation, energy, insolvency, tax, competition and litigation funding. He has appeared regularly in courts and tribunals in both the United Kingdom, where he practised as a barrister in London, and as lead counsel at all levels of the New Zealand court system. Prior to joining Thorndon Chambers, Tim has previously been a partner at Bell Gully and Luke Cunningham Clere and a Crown Counsel at Crown Law.

The statements and conclusions contained in this book are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This book has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
