

PRESENTERS

John Hannan, Bankside Chambers, Auckland

John specialises in employment law, education law and commercial litigation. He has appeared in leading employment law cases in the Employment Court and Court of Appeal. John has acted for significant unions, for major national and international employers, and for individuals at C-suite level. He also carries out employment investigations and mediations. Before going to the bar, John regularly ranked as a leading individual in both the Chambers and Legal 500 directories as leader of the DLA Piper New Zealand employment law team.

Ashley-Jayne (AJ) Lodge, Anderson Lloyd, Christchurch

AJ co-leads Anderson Lloyd's Employment team, providing pragmatic solutions to complex workplace issues. Her experience covers the full range of employment challenges, human rights, privacy and health and safety matters. AJ is a certified Association of Workplace Investigators member and Certificate Holder (AWI-CH), and is experienced in investigating allegations of sexual harassment, bullying, and matters involving vulnerable people.

Paul McBride, McBride Davenport James, Wellington

Paul is a Wellington-based Employment and ACC specialist. He represents employers, unions and individuals across the full range of employment issues. He works extensively in health and disability, transport, education and service sectors, and frequently appears in the courts on employment issues. Paul also acts for ACC and employers in a range of ACC litigation.
