

PRESENTERS

Jenny Baldwin, Partner, Anthony Harper, Auckland

Jenny heads Anthony Harper’s retirement villages team. With over 17 years of experience in the retirement villages and aged care sectors, she has developed in-depth knowledge, ranging from the law to commercial practices and trends, and the people involved. Jenny provides specialist corporate advice to a range of operators, from large groups to small not-for-profit entities, in aged care and retirement village law, the preparation of compliance documents, general operational advice, and dispute resolution.

John Collyns, Executive Director, Retirement Villages Association, Wellington

John is the executive director of the Retirement Villages Association (NZ) Inc. He was previously the executive director of the Bus and Coach Association (NZ) Inc; owned and ran a restaurant; was a marketing manager for New Zealand Railways in their freight business; and was a Parliamentary Private Secretary for the Minister of Railways in the 1980s. John is the New Zealand judge in the Asia-Pacific Aged Care Innovation Awards. He is on the Board of CommonAge, was a founding director of the Road Transport and Logistics Industry Training Organisation and is a fellow of the Australasian Society of Association Executives.

Peter Orpin, Special Counsel, Lane Neave, Auckland

Peter has expertise in retirement village law, trusts and charities law, and the law of societies. He has advised residents, operators and statutory supervisors in the retirement village industry for over 25 years. Currently the convenor of the retirement villages sub-committee of the Auckland District Law Society (ADLS), Peter has also advised Members of Parliament, select committees, officials and the office of the Retirement Commissioner. He is a member of the ADLS trusts committee and is involved with the advisory work associated with future Incorporated Societies Regulations. Peter is also a trained mediator and a chartered accountant.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
