

PRESENTERS

Jennifer Hambleton, Partner, MinterEllisonRuddWatts, Auckland

Jennifer is a competition and consumer law specialist and general commercial litigator. She advises on the full suite of competition and consumer law issues, including merger clearances, authorisations, cartels, leniency applications, and collaborative activities. Jennifer acts for clients on Commerce Act and Fair Trading Act investigations and enforcement actions, and advises on issues under both Acts arising from contractual terms and practices and advertising and promotions. She returned to New Zealand in 2016 after almost 10 years in Australia where she worked in the competition teams at several leading Australian firms. During that time, Jennifer represented both commercial clients and regulators in regulatory investigations and complex disputes in the Federal and Supreme Courts and the Australian Competition Tribunal.

Ben Hamlin, Barrister, Wellington

Ben is an experienced litigator with a reputation for clear communication and practical, high quality, advice and advocacy. He has a passion for competition, consumer, and regulatory matters, and is one of New Zealand's leading lawyers in these fields. Ben is experienced in both civil and criminal matters, and has appeared as counsel in all levels of the New Zealand Courts, including appeals to the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court.
