

PRESENTERS

Paul Cogswell, Barrister, FortyEight Shortland Barristers, Auckland

Paul is a barrister practising from FortyEight Shortland Barristers. He advises on most aspects of commercial and civil litigation. He has 30 years' experience and provides litigation and dispute resolution advice to a wide range of commercial and private clients. Paul's skills include resolving disputes through litigation, arbitration, adjudications under the Construction Contracts Act, negotiation and mediation when appropriate. He also accepts appointment as an independent, trained, mediator. Paul is the Chair of the Weathertight Homes Tribunal and was a foundation member of the Canterbury Earthquakes Insurance Tribunal.

Janine Stewart, Partner, MinterEllisonRuddWatts, Auckland

Janine is a specialist construction, property, and projects disputes lawyer. She is a sought-after industry commentator and adviser, and passionate about shaping the construction industry and legal landscape in New Zealand. Janine has particular experience in project disputes and arbitration, having led a number of arbitrations of significant complexity. She regularly acts on matters relating to defective buildings and advises on landlord and tenant obligations and contentious rent review disputes. Janine is known for her pragmatic approach, adopting either litigation and/or dispute resolution to achieve a commercially effective outcome for her clients.
