

PRESENTERS

Fiona King, Senior Associate, TGT Legal, Auckland

Fiona has a strong client focus and enjoys delivering the optimal outcome for her clients. She expertly balances her technical know-how with the provision of practical solutions to her clients. Fiona advises on all aspects of trust law and personal asset planning and has experience in complex trust restructuring and drafting whatever documentation is required to seamlessly achieve clients' personal asset planning objectives. She is a full member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners.

Stephen Law, Partner, TGT Legal, Auckland

Stephen had extensive experience as a corporate lawyer before transitioning to being a trust lawyer at TGT. He specialises exclusively in providing advice on legal issues relating to trusts, general estate planning, relationship property, estates, and wills. Stephen regularly works with trustees, beneficiaries, and their advisers, advising them on their rights and obligations, and long-term succession issues to business families and those holding long-term legacy assets.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
