

PRESENTERS

Theresa Donnelly, Perpetual Guardian, Auckland

Theresa graduated from the University of Auckland in 1992 and has a wealth of experience in elder law and trust and estate-related matters. She was formerly at Public Trust (senior solicitor and team leader) and the Ministry of Social Development where she was lead senior in the public law team, working with Parliamentary Counsel, older people's policy and the Office of Senior Citizens. Theresa worked on the 2017 changes to the EPA forms and has in-depth knowledge of the PPPR Act from a number of perspectives. She is a regular presenter to professional groups such as NZLS CLE, ADLS, CCH, STEPS, and Legalwise, and is known for her practical approach to thorny issues.

Alan Gluestein, Wyndham Chambers, Auckland

Alan graduated from Auckland University Law School with an LLB and Diploma in Criminology. He joined a small city firm where he was the litigation partner for a number of years. Alan commenced practice as a sole practitioner in Parnell in 1994 running a general practice but with an emphasis on family law and family litigation. He has been in Wyndham Chambers as a barrister sole since 2002 specialising in family law and, in particular, elder law. Alan has been involved in proceedings under the PPPR Act since it came into force and has been regularly appointed as counsel to assist the court and as counsel for subject persons in proceedings before the court. He has delivered many papers over the years and been involved in many presentations relating to proceedings under the PPPR Act.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
