

PRESENTER

Registrar John Earles, High Court & Ministry of Justice, Wellington

John Earles is a Registrar and Sheriff of the High Court of New Zealand in Wellington. He deals with the complete range of applications for grants of administration daily. John is consulted by Legal Executives and practitioners from throughout the country for technical and practical advice relating to this area of work, especially when unusual situations arise. He is a contributing author of Wills and Succession and a co-author of Dobbie's Probate and Administration Practice, 6th edition, both published by LexisNexis.

The statements and conclusions contained in this book are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This book has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
