

PRESENTERS

Stephanie Earl, Meredith Connell, Auckland

Stephanie appears as counsel for the Commissioner of Police and for the Chief Executive of the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment in immigration proceedings. She works for Meredith Connell in the public and regulatory team. Stephanie previously spent two years as a judges' clerk at the High Court at Auckland, working as a Crown prosecutor and conducting prosecutions under the Resource Management Act 1991 and two years at the Treasury Solicitor's Department in the United Kingdom, in its public law litigation team.

Katie Hogan, City Chambers, Auckland

Katie specialises in criminal proceeds and money laundering litigation and undertakes criminal and civil litigation at all levels. She is a leading litigator in the areas of criminal proceeds, financial crime, and pecuniary penalties under the AML/CFT regime. Katie serves on the NZ Bar Association Criminal Committee, and she is a member of the Serious Fraud Office prosecution panel.

CONTENTS

1. CRIMINAL PROCEEDS INVESTIGATIONS	1
AN OVERVIEW OF THE CRIMINAL PROCEEDS (RECOVERY) ACT 2009.....	1
TYPE 1 AFOS.....	2
TYPE 2 AFOS.....	2
PFOs	3
CLAIMS FOR RELIEF	4
A TYPICAL RESTRAINT APPLICATION.....	5
ADDITIONAL MATTERS	6
2. INVESTIGATIVE POWERS HELD BY POLICE AND THE OFFICIAL ASSIGNEE UNDER THE ACT.....	7
INFORMATION SHARING	7
SEARCH WARRANT POWERS	8
WITHOUT NOTICE APPLICATIONS	8
PRODUCTION AND EXAMINATION ORDERS	8
DISCLOSURE OF SOURCE ORDERS.....	10
PRESERVATION OF VALUE OF RESTRAINED PROPERTY	11
3. THE EXTENSION OF THE REGIME TO “REGULATORY OFFENDING”	13
4. ISSUES FOR RESPONDENTS	15
WHETHER TO CONTEST RESTRAINT	15
THE INTERPLAY OF CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS RELATING TO THE SAME CRIMINAL ACTIVITY	15
DISCOVERY ISSUES	16
EVIDENCE ADMISSIBILITY	17
THE NATURE OF THE REGIME	17
5. COSTS PRESSURES.....	19