

PRESENTERS

Theresa Donnelly, Legal Services Manager, Perpetual Guardian, Auckland

Theresa graduated from the University of Auckland in 1992 and has a wealth of experience in elder law and trust and estate related matters. She was formerly at Public Trust (senior solicitor and team leader) and the Ministry of Social Development where she was lead senior in the public law team, working with Parliamentary Counsel, older people's policy and the Office of Senior Citizens. Theresa is a regular presenter in this space and is known for her practical approach to thorny issues.

Henry Stokes, General Counsel, Perpetual Guardian, Auckland

Henry has been in private practice and acted as in-house counsel for a combined period of over 25 years. He is a fiduciary specialist and is currently general counsel for Perpetual Guardian. Henry was previously general counsel for Public Trust. He specialises in the areas of wills, estates, trusts (both family and charitable) and Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act matters, including appearing in the Family Court, High Court and Court of Appeal. Henry advises on all areas from the preparation and implementation stages through to the disputes, claims and proceedings stages.

The statements and conclusions contained in this book are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This book has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
