

PRESENTERS

Liz Coats, Partner, Bell Gully, Auckland

Liz is a specialist employment lawyer who has been involved in leading cases relating to equal pay, minimum entitlements, and the Holidays Act. She regularly advises employers on all facets of employment relations, and works alongside colleagues to advise on the employment, health and safety, and privacy implications of corporate transactions.

Bridget Smith, Partner, SBM Legal, Auckland

Bridget is a specialist employment adviser on the full range of employment law and health and safety issues for employers and senior employees. She has advocacy experience at all levels and regularly appears in the specialist employment jurisdictions. Bridget is also regularly engaged as an independent investigator in a range of employment matters.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
