

PRESENTERS

Catherine Francis, PwC, Auckland

Catherine is a leading GST practitioner and seasoned presenter. Property transactions form a large part of her practice, with clients including funds, iwi, corporate and high-net-worth investors. Catherine has a particular interest in tax policy issues and has been closely involved in recent law changes and consultations affecting GST and property.

Riaan Geldenhuys, Barrister, Auckland

Riaan practises as a barrister sole and advises a number of high-profile companies on income tax, GST and Customs issues. He has several clients in the property sector, including receivers, liquidators, accounting and law firms. Before joining the bar, Riaan was a tax disputes resolution specialist for PwC for more than 10 years, and worked in senior roles in Inland Revenue. Prior to immigrating from South Africa, he practised as a solicitor and was a litigation partner from 1999.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
