

PRESENTER

Alan Webb, Quay Chambers, Auckland

Alan has over 28 years of experience in litigating company, contract, commercial, negligence, property, resource management and land disputes. He focuses predominantly on environmental issues arising under the Resource Management Act 1991. Although based in Auckland, Alan provides services throughout New Zealand and advises on all aspects of environmental, resource management, local government, public law, administrative and enforcement issues. He also acts as counsel for developers, property holdings companies, industrial services companies and community groups undertaking a wide range of projects. Alan regularly appears in council hearings, the Environment Court, the High Court and occasionally in the Appellate jurisdiction.

The statements and conclusions contained in this book are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This book has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
