

PRESENTERS

David Williams QC, LLB (Auck), LLM (Harvard), Lincoln's Inn, Barrister, Auckland

David A R Williams QC is a member of Bankside Chambers (Auckland and Singapore) and also Essex Court Chambers, London. He is New Zealand's most experienced international arbitrator having been involved in over 100 international commercial arbitrations and numerous investment treaty arbitrations.

He was the New Zealand representative on the ICC Court of Arbitration, Paris 1999 - 2002. He was a Justice of the High Court of New Zealand from 1991 - 1994 and has served on a part-time basis since 2000 as a Justice of the Cook Islands High Court and Court of Appeal. He is also a Justice of the Court of the Dubai International Financial Centre, Dubai, UAE.

With Amokura Kawharu, Campbell Walker, Daniel Kalderimis, and Anna Kirk he is writing a text on commercial arbitration in New Zealand which will be published by Lexis-Nexis later this year.

Daniel Kalderimis, BA/LLB(Hons) (VUW), LLM (Colum), Principal, Chapman Tripp, Wellington

Daniel Kalderimis is a commercial litigator who leads Chapman Tripp's international arbitration practice. Daniel is listed in The International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration for 2010 and 2011. He is admitted in New Zealand, New York and England and Wales (where he is a solicitor-advocate for civil matters). Daniel is widely published, has previously taught at Columbia Law School and is presently an adjunct lecturer at Victoria University Law School.

Acknowledgement

The authors and NZLS CLE gratefully acknowledge the assistance of Anna Kirk and Mark Tushingham of Bankside Chambers, Auckland, and Richard May, Julian Brown, Sarah Watson and Caleb McConnell of Chapman Tripp in editing and proof-reading the draft text.
