

Criminal Law Symposium

Session 1: Sentencing

Rape sentencing – Are all rapes equal?	2
Bridget Mackintosh
Proceeds of Crime Act 1991: Does it work, 10 years on?	6
Robert Lithgow
What should be done with Hamlet?	13
Hon Justice Anderson

Session 2: Current Reforms

Some current reforms of the criminal law of New Zealand as they related to homicide	24
Judith Ablett Kerr QC
The case for partial defences and trial by jury in homicide cases	33
Charles Cato
R v Shaheed : the new approach to improperly obtained evidence	45
Richard Mahoney
R v Shaheed : a prosecutor's defence	61
Simon Mount

Session 3: Criminal Appeals

Counsel incompetency as a ground for appeal	84
Rt Hon Justice Blanchard
Incompetent counsel	94
Simon France
Incompetent counsel – a defence and appellate counsel perspective	99
Greg King

Session 4: Future Directions

Current directions in criminal justice	108
Simon Mount
Should there be an automatic right to private prosecution?	122
Susan Hughes
Youth justice	128
James Johnston
Criminal law in a multicultural society	140
His Honour Judge Epati	