

PRESENTER

Niamh McMahon, McMahon Butterworth Thompson, Auckland

Niamh is a partner in the firm of McMahon Butterworth Thompson and practises primarily in the commercial law area. She has been a member of the PLS Executive Committee since 2013. Niamh is a member of Standards Committee 5 (Auckland) – NZLS and a costs assessor. She was a convenor of ADLSI’s Documents & Precedents Committee for seven years and drafter of the 4th ed ADLSI/REINZ Standard Agreement for Sale and Purchase of a Business. She is a regular presenter for NZLS CLE. In her spare time, Niamh is a keen scuba diver. She says diving is very similar to the practice of law. There isn’t a lot of air time, it’s important not to get out of your depth and there are a fair number of sharks to watch out for.

CONTENTS

CO-OWNERSHIP ARRANGEMENTS OF PROPERTY AND HOW BEST TO DOCUMENT THEM .....	1
BACKGROUND .....	1
Role of the lawyer.....	2
Ownership Structures .....	2
Parents providing assistance to one of their children to enable the purchase of a first home .....	2
Let's assume that the assistance being provided by the parents is through the parents' family trust ..	3
Let's assume that the purchasers of the property intend to form their trust for the purpose of acquiring the property.....	4
Blended reconstituted families .....	4
Fact scenario to consider.....	5
Conclusion.....	6