

PRESENTERS

Christina Robb, Happen Consulting Ltd., Christchurch

Christina has expertise in water resource management, community collaboration and irrigation scheme strategy. Prior to starting her own consulting firm, for eight years, she led the implementation of the Canterbury Water Management Strategy - a community-led collaborative approach that seeks solutions to the challenges of water quality and water flows.

Prof Peter Skelton, CNZM, Environment Canterbury, Christchurch

Honorary Professor Skelton is a former Environment Court Judge and Associate Professor of Resource Management Law at Lincoln University. He presided as an Independent Commissioner over the hearings by Environment Waikato into Variation 5 to the Waikato Regional Plan concerning the control of nitrates entering Lake Taupo and, as an Independent Commissioner appointed by Environment Canterbury, has been completing a series of decisions on Lower Waitaki Catchment water applications. With more than 20 years as a Judge of the Environment Court and having presided over the Lower Waitaki hearings, Professor Skelton brings a depth of knowledge.
