

PRESENTER

John Earles, High Court & Ministry of Justice, Wellington

John, Registrar and Sheriff of the High Court of New Zealand and Specialist Technical Advisor to the Ministry of Justice is located at the High Court in Wellington where he has been for the past 28 years. Since the filing of probates was centralised in Wellington in 2013 John has been engaged in training staff who work in the probate unit as well as dealing with applications. Much of his work involves being consulted by solicitors, legal executives and their staff who encounter difficult or unusual circumstances and providing assistance on how to proceed with their applications. John is also a co-author of the 5th and 6th edition of the text book Dobbie's Probate and Administration Practice.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
