

PRESENTERS

Her Hon Judge Christina Inglis, Employment Court, Auckland

Judge Inglis holds an LLM(Hons); MA(Hons). Prior to appointment she was Crown Counsel at Crown Law. She is currently on the Advisory Board for the New Zealand Centre for Human Rights Law, Policy and Practice.

Liz Coats, Senior Associate, Bell Gully, Auckland

Liz advises on employment issues. She represents employers in the Authority, Employment Court and Court of Appeal, including personal grievances, breach of contract claims, and leading cases relating to minimum entitlements.

CONTENTS

COMPENSATION FOR NON-MONETARY LOSS – FICKLE OR FLEXIBLE? .....	1
PART I: THE FRAMING AND THE PRINCIPLES .....	1
INTRODUCTION .....	1
WHY BOTHER WITH A FRAMEWORK?.....	2
WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE AWARD? .....	2
IDENTIFYING THE BASIS FOR THE RELIEF CLAIMED .....	3
Conjunctive or disjunctive harm? .....	4
HOW IS COMPENSATION TO BE QUANTIFIED? .....	4
Objective approach .....	5
Burden .....	5
Evidence of loss .....	5
Trifling losses not sufficient .....	6
Sufficient causal connection .....	6
Not to punish .....	6
No collateral purpose .....	7
No double recovery .....	7
Not to compensate for the loss suffered by others .....	8
Relevance of impact on employer? .....	8
A special approach for certain categories of claim and claimant? .....	10
Mitigation – “duty” to mitigate? Application to claims of non-pecuniary loss? .....	11
Contribution .....	12
Relevance of post-termination conduct by employee .....	12
Relevance of post-termination conduct by employer? .....	12
Modesty? .....	13
Keeping up with the times .....	15
Globalisation .....	15
Overall assessment of relief? .....	15
Stuck with the pleadings as to quantum? .....	16
Interest? .....	16
Harmonisation .....	17
Predictability .....	21
A BANDING APPROACH?.....	21
AN ALTERNATIVE OPTION? .....	23
PART II: PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS .....	24
THE SECOND LIMB.....	24
THE POSSIBILITIES – CLAIMS FOR NON-PECUNIARY LOSS UNDER S 123(1)(C)(II).....	25
Eg: Loss of benefit of stable, permanent employment and anticipated future income .....	26
Eg: Loss of status/career .....	26
Eg: Damage to family relationships .....	27
Eg: Psychiatric/mental injury .....	27
Eg: Loss of opportunity eg for professional training, travel .....	29
Eg: Loss of reputation .....	29
A FEW COMMENTS ON CLAIMS FOR CERTAIN TYPES OF PECUNIARY LOSS UNDER S 123(1)(C)(II) .....	31
Costs incurred by an employee in engaging representation during an employment process (before proceedings initiated) .....	31
Holiday pay eg for payments made after termination of employment .....	32
BETTER THE DEVIL YOU KNOW? WHERE TO GO IF YOU HAVE THE CHOICE.....	32
Jurisdiction .....	33
When can the Tribunal be accessed? .....	34
Similarities between the jurisdictions .....	34
Different opportunities in the Tribunal .....	35
Advantages of employment jurisdiction .....	37
“DO’S” AND “DON’TS” .....	38
Acting for an employee .....	38
Acting for the employer .....	40

SETTLEMENT..... 43
SUMMARY..... 44
APPENDIX 1: SECTIONS 123 AND 124..... 45
APPENDIX 2: TOTAL AWARD TABLES ..... 46
APPENDIX 3: RELEVANT GRAPHS ..... 50
APPENDIX 4: PROOF MATRIX..... 55