

Damages

INTRODUCTION: WHERE IS THE BOTTOM LINE? - WHICH BOTTOM LINE?	1
CONTRACT
Objective of damages	3
The scope of secondary obligation to provide a remedy, for breach of primary obligation to perform	4
Different considerations for different contracts	5
Summary: Scope of secondary obligation defines damages liability	17
Impact of the Contractual Remedies Act 1979	17
How different is the approach to assessment of damages, in contract and in tort?	20
TORT
Influences on the approach to damages	24
Assessment of damages in tort	30
Contract/tort: towards a New Zealand law of damages?	31
DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF A CHANCE
Introduction	33
New Zealand cases	34
Australian cases	36
How widely do we define "a chance"?	38
DAMAGES IN EQUITY
Terminological disclaimer	41
Historical derivation	42
Recognition of equitable compensation in New Zealand	44
Assessment of equitable compensation - differences in approach	45
1995 - The House of Lords speaks	47
1996 - Action on all fronts	49
An attempted synthesis	56
DAMAGES IN ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
Introduction	58
The position in England - no change	59
Misfeasance in public office	60
Beaudesert lives	64
Negligence	65
Liability of the holders of judicial office in damages	68
DAMAGES AND THE NEW ZEALAND BILL OF RIGHTS ACT
Introduction	71
Baigent's Case	71
Nature of the remedy - public law compensation	73
Assessment of compensation	74
Level of compensation	75
Summings up on damages in defamation cases	76
EXEMPLARY DAMAGES

Introduction	79
The availability of exemplary damages extended	81
Equitable obligations	81
Exemplary damages for breach of contract	83
Exemplary damages for negligence	84
Particular circumstances affecting the availability of exemplary damages	85
Practice and procedural aspects	88
Double jeopardy and the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act	90
Insurance against exemplary damages	93
Awards of exemplary damages	94
DAMAGES FOR MENTAL DISTRESS
Introduction	96
Damages for breach of contract	96
Developments in New Zealand	97
Bloxham v Robinson and beyond	100
"Frustration and hassle" - damages not recoverable	103
Awards of damages for mental stress	104
ELECTION BETWEEN REMEDIES
Alternative remedies	106
When must election be made?	107
The need for informed choice	108
Exception to the normal rule	110
INDEX OF CASES	111