

PRESENTERS

James Coleman, Barrister, Wellington

James specialises in all forms of tax litigation. He has had over 17 years tax litigation experience and has appeared in over 135 reported tax cases including appearances in the Supreme Court and Privy Council. He has a particular interest in litigating avoidance cases and those concerning the capital revenue boundary. Prior to joining the independent bar he was at the Crown Law Office where he was appointed Crown Counsel and team leader of the tax team. He writes a regular column on tax matters in the NZLJ and will shortly be publishing a text on the tax avoidance law in New Zealand.

Eugen Trombitas, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Auckland

Eugen leads the firm's indirect taxes team and has 17 years' experience in the tax field, with particular expertise in the area of GST and tax controversy for all tax types.

He has extensive experience in advising clients on all aspects of IRD audits, dispute resolution process and settlement of tax disputes. Eugen brings a practical and strategic focus to tax disputes, and often works closely with barristers in a support role. He has been involved in assisting with tax cases at all levels in New Zealand, including in the High Court of Australia.

Prior to joining PricewaterhouseCoopers, Eugen practised in the tax field in Australia and as a partner in a large New Zealand law firm.

Acknowledgement

Eugen and James would like to acknowledge the invaluable assistance received from Riaan Geldenhuys (Senior Manager) and Siew Mei Ou Yang (Senior Tax Consultant), PricewaterhouseCoopers with several of the chapters. Eugen would particularly like to thank Riaan Geldenhuys for his insights into the disputes reform issues.
