

PRESENTER

The Honourable Justice Tony Pagone, Federal Court of Australia, Victoria

Justice Tony Pagone was appointed to the Federal Court of Australia in June 2013 and is the national co-ordinating judge of the Taxation National Practice Area of the Federal Court. Before his appointment to the Federal Court he was a judge of the trial division of the Supreme Court of Victoria and had been the judge in charge of the Commercial Court of that Court. Justice Pagone graduated from Monash University in 1979 with a Bachelor of Laws and from Cambridge University with a Master of Laws in 1983. In 2014 he was awarded an LL.D. from the University of Melbourne for his research and published work on anti tax avoidance provisions. Justice Pagone was admitted in Victoria as a legal practitioner in 1980, signed the roll of counsel in 1985, and was appointed Queen's Counsel for Victoria in 1996. He practised widely in taxation law, commercial law, administrative law, constitution law, public and human rights law during his career at the Bar. Justice Pagone was also Special Counsel to the Australian Taxation Office between 2002 and 2004. He is a professorial fellow of the Melbourne Law School and lectures in several post-graduate courses at the Melbourne Law School and from time to time in the Law Faculty at Monash University. Justice Pagone is a vice president of the International Association of Judges.
