

PRESENTER

Virginia Hardy, Crown Law, Te Tari Ture o te Karauna, Wellington

Virginia is Deputy Solicitor General of the Attorney General Group which includes counsel handling Treaty of Waitangi and Crown-Maori relations issues and constitutional/Bill of Rights issues. The focus of the office's work associated with the Treaty is on advising government in relation to contemporary and historical Treaty of Waitangi claims and government policy touching on the Treaty. The office also represents the Crown at Treaty of Waitangi inquiries and before the Courts, including on Marine and Coastal Area applications.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
