

PRESENTERS

Lindsay Lloyd, Partner, MDS Law, Christchurch

Lindsay has been in practice for 34 years and he has been the trust account supervisor at MDS Law for many years. He was inaugural Chairman of the NZLS Property Law Section and remains on the executive. Lindsay is currently on the Standards Committee of the Canterbury-Westland Branch of the NZLS, a presenter for the NZLS Trust Account Supervisor Training Programme and has also been a member of the NZLS Ethics Committee for several years. He practises predominantly in the areas of property, commercial law and trusts.

Dr Duncan Webb, Partner, Lane Neave, Christchurch

Duncan specialises in professional responsibility and liability and has practised law since 1989. He has also taught in law schools in the United States and New Zealand including a distinguished career as a former professor of law. He was closely involved in the preparation of the new Rules of Professional Conduct and Client Care and recently presented on Client Care for the New Zealand Law Society. Duncan is the author of Ethics Professional Responsibility and the Lawyer and regularly speaks to professional groups on issues of ethics and professional conduct as well as assisting lawyers in dealings with disciplinary bodies. Between 2008 and 2010 Duncan held a quasi-judicial appointment within the Ministry of Justice as Legal Complaints Review Officer.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
