

PRESENTER

Thomas Gibbons, McCaw Lewis, Hamilton

Thomas is a director of McCaw Lewis in Hamilton, practicing in property and commercial law with a special interest in unit titles. He is the author of Unit Titles Law & Practice, Lexis Nexis 2011 and 2015, and co-author of Land Law, Laws of NZ, 2014, Easements, Covenants, and Profits, Laws of NZ, 2009, and articles for the International Journal of Law in the Built Environment (UK), Property Law Review (Aus) as well as various NZ journals. Thomas works with all kinds of bodies corporate, and across a broad range of legal issues, with recent work including advising on management agreements, maintenance issues, and body corporate governance; as well as on unit title cancellation, redevelopment and subdivision work. He also has strong interests in subdivision and technical title issues.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
