

PRESENTERS

Michelle Bowen, Associate, SBM Legal, Auckland

Michelle is an Associate at SBM Legal. She qualified and practised civil law (including employment) in Auckland, before moving to the UK where she practised employment law for several years, before returning to Auckland in 2017. Michelle is an experienced employment lawyer, whose expertise includes advising and representing employers (both private and public sector) and employees on a wide range of employment law issues.

Penny Swarbrick, Partner, SBM Legal, Auckland

Penny is a partner at SBM Legal. She has over thirty years of specialist employment law experience. During her career, Penny has acted for clients across a full range of issues, including employment disputes, collective bargaining, privacy and human rights issues, health and safety, and general advice. She brings an extensive insight into the practical implications of employment relationship problems for her clients.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
