

PRESENTERS

Nick Chisnall, Barrister, Blackstone Chambers, Auckland

Prior to joining the bar, Nick was the Public Defence Service's General Counsel and oversaw the PDS's appeal practice. Before that, he was Crown Counsel at the Crown Law Office, where he undertook appeals on behalf of the Solicitor-General. Nick has appeared many times on behalf of both defendants and the Crown in the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court. He is an experienced jury trial advocate, both as a senior Crown prosecutor and defence lawyer and has defended and prosecuted all types of serious criminal cases.

Lynn Hughes, Public Defender, Public Defence Service, South Auckland

Lynn is based in the Manukau PDS office where she leads a large team of criminal defence lawyers. Lynn is a member of the NZLS Criminal Law Committee and a long-standing member of the ADLSi Criminal Law Committee. She is an author for Abbot and Thompson on District Court Procedure (Criminal). Lynn has presented on various criminal law topics for NZLS and other legal education providers, and is a member of the Litigation Skills Faculty.

The statements and conclusions contained in this presentation are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This presentation has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
