

PRESENTERS

Catherine Bibbey, Barrister, Christchurch

Catherine has provided advice in the taxation area since 1986. Her particular area of interest is advising clients involved in disputes with Inland Revenue. She was counsel in two recent important Court of Appeal cases dealing with GST issues. Catherine is an author for Brooker's Smart Tax, a consultant editor of CCH's Lawyer's Tax Companion and is also a past member of the NZLS taxation committee.

Gary O'Neill, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Auckland

Gary is a director in the PricewaterhouseCoopers Indirect Taxes team. He has extensive experience with all aspects of GST. He provides advice to a wide range of clients on complex GST issues, a significant proportion being in relation to land transactions and associated contractual matters. Gary is a chartered accountant and has been with PricewaterhouseCoopers since 1989.

Eugen Trombitas, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Auckland

Eugen leads the PricewaterhouseCoopers Indirect Taxes team and has 16 years' experience, with particular expertise in the area of GST. He is also well versed in tax dispute resolution and other areas of corporate tax. Eugen advises clients on the taxation implications of all forms of land and commercial transactions. Previously, Eugen worked as a tax lawyer in Australia and as a partner in a New Zealand law firm.

Acknowledgement

Gary and Eugen would like to acknowledge the invaluable assistance received from Ruwan de Silva (Manager, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Auckland) in the preparation of several of their chapters.
