

Guarantees

1. INTRODUCTION	1
2. ADVISING PROSPECTIVE GUARANTORS	3
Guidelines	3
Introduction	3
Using the guidelines	3
The guidelines are only an aid when advising a prospective guarantor	3
See the guarantor alone	4
Ascertain whether an interpreter is needed	4
Take time	5
Be prepared	6
Recognise that for some people an interview with a solicitor about giving a guarantee will be an unfamiliar experience	6
Use appropriate language	7
Consider whether your advice should be in writing and acknowledged by the guarantor	7
Recognise the potential risks involved in this area of advice-giving	8
Guidelines summary	9
1. Does the guarantor understand your role?	10
2. What are the terms of the contract of retainer?	11
3. Are there any conflicts of interest?	15
4. Does the guarantor understand what a guarantee is?	26
5. Does the guarantee impose principal, independent and unconditional obligations?	32
6. Does the guarantee secure a specific obligation or all the obligations of the principal debtor?	39
7. Is the guarantee 'limited or unlimited'?	52
8. Is the guarantee a specific or continuing security?	54
9. Is the guarantee limited as to duration? How can the guarantor get out of the guarantee	55
10. Does the guarantee fall within the ambit of other securities granted by the guarantor?	57
11. Does the guarantor understand the lender's limited duty of disclosure?	58
12. Is there more than one guarantor?	64
13. Does the guarantor understand that a guarantee imposes a serious liability?	67
14. What is the underlying transaction being guaranteed?	68
15. What are the risks?	69
16. Why is the guarantee required? Is it necessary? Are there alternatives?	74
17. Is the guarantor free of inappropriate influences?	75
18. Does the guarantor understand the commitment they are assuming?	77
19. Does the guarantor accept personal liability under the guarantee?	78

20. Are any warranties required of the guarantor?	80
21. Are any warranties required of the lender?	80
22. Does the lender have any certification requirements?	81
23. Does the guarantor understand the other terms of the guarantee?	83
24. Are there any other issues?	86
3. ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR 'NON-COMMERCIAL GUARANTEES'	87
Introduction	87
Etridge	87
Protecting guarantors against principal debtor wrongdoing	87
'Commercial' guarantees	87
'Non-commercial' guarantees	88
Increased judicial willingness to set aside guarantees	88
The previous law	89
Contractors Bonding Ltd v Snee	89
The current law (pre Etridge)	90
Barclay's Bank plc v O'Brien	90
Rejecting the argument that the law recognises a 'special equity' for wives entering into guarantees	91
A factual presumption	91
Expanding the law	91
Imposing 'reasonable steps' upon the lender	92
A new concept of notice	92
On inquiry	93
O'Brien's advice	93
Put on inquiry	94
O'Brien's 'reasonable steps'	95
New Zealand's adoption of O'Brien – Wilkinson v ASB Bank Ltd	96
Wilkinson's 10 observations	96
Etridge	100
Overview	100
Undue influence reconsidered	100
Proof	101
Manifest disadvantage	103
When is a lender 'put on inquiry'?	106
Application of O'Brien to non-commercial guarantees	107
'Reasonable steps'	108
The mischief to which this obligation is directed	109
'Reasonable steps' when an independent solicitor is advising the guarantor	109
Protection offered by legal advice – independent solicitor	113
Imputed notice	114
Insulating the bank from inadequate advice	115

Remaining risk for bank	115
Solicitor's advice	116
Implications for New Zealand solicitors	121
Alternative solutions	121
Relevance for New Zealand law	122
Consequences for those advising guarantors	122
4. FACTORS AFFECTING THE VALIDITY OF GUARANTEES	125
Introduction	125
Unconscionability	125
Case examples	126
Recent examples	128
Non est factum	129
Agency	130
Undue influence	131
Duress	132
Fair Trading Act 1986	134
Case examples	135
The Credits Contracts Act 1981	138
The Consumer Guarantees Act 1993	140
Definitions	140
The guarantees	142
5. GUARANTEES AND RENEWAL OF LEASES	143
Introduction	143
Effect of assignment on guarantee	143
Exercise of options to 'renew' the lease	144
Guidance	145
What is being renewed – the term of the lease or the lease itself	145
Terms of the lease	146
Wagener	146
Sina Holdings	147
Powell	148
Clause 34 Auckland District Law Society (4th ed 2002)	150
Other relevant considerations	152
Variation of the terms of the "renewed" lease	153
Summary	154
APPENDIX 1 – NATIONAL BANK GUARANTEE	155
APPENDIX 2 – WESTPACTRUST GUARANTEE	163
APPENDIX 3 – WORKING DRAFT SOLICITOR'S FILE CERTIFICATE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND CONFIRMATION BY GUARANTOR	177
APPENDIX 4 – VIDEO CASE STUDY : GRANNY GOES GUARANTOR	189
Notes: The Lawyer and Norman Spratt	189
Notes: The Lawyer and Wayne Spratt	190

Notes: The Lawyer and Father Spratt
Notes: The Lawyer and Granny Spratt

191
192