

PRESENTER

Chris Kelly, Greg Kelly Law, Wellington

Chris had a lengthy career with trustee organisations – holding positions such as District Public Trustee for Wellington and General Counsel at Guardian Trust – before moving to private practice. He is co-author of two leading legal texts: Garrow & Kelly Law of Trusts and Trustees (now in its 7th edition) and the 6th edition of Dobbie's Probate and Administration. In addition to other publications, Chris has presented numerous papers at legal conferences and has chaired Elder Law conferences. He completed a Master of Laws with a thesis on Trustee Accountability and is a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP).

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
