PRESENTER

Colin Magee, Financial Markets Authority, Auckland

As Head of Conduct Colin leads the team at the FMA that oversees capital markets conduct and infrastructure, including licensed product markets, primary and secondary market conduct, crowd funding/peer to peer lending and auditors. Colin joined the FMA in April 2013 and was previously general counsel of a London-based investment bank. He started his career as a lawyer at Clifford Chance and has since spent 15 years working in the finance sector. Colin has extensive experience in banking and securities law as well as business restructuring and corporate governance.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
