

PRESENTERS

Greg Arthur, Partner, A J Park, Wellington

Greg has extensive experience in intellectual property matters, particularly intellectual property litigation. He has acted in numerous proceedings before the Commissioner of Patents and Trade Marks, the High Court and the Court of Appeal for a range of New Zealand and international clients. Greg has presented at a number of intellectual property conferences and is a New Zealand author for the European Intellectual Property Review.

Matt Sumpter, Principal, Chapman Tripp, Auckland

Matt is New Zealand intellectual property counsel to Microsoft and advises clients across the economy on all aspects of IP from registration to infringement. Matt has published and reviewed many articles, book-chapters and conference papers on IP topics. He is recommended by international legal publisher, Chambers & Partners, as a leading lawyer in the field of IP. Matt teaches the competition law course at the University of Auckland's Faculty of Law.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
