PRESENTERS

Michael Robertson, Partner, Shieff Angland, Auckland

Michael has spent the last 21 years practising in insurance law acting for a wide range of domestic and international insurers. He is regarded in the industry as a leader in his field working in all aspects of liability and general commercial insurance. Michael specialises in professional indemnity insurance drafting policies, risk management and claims resolution across a range of professions.

Helen Twomey, Senior Associate, Shieff Angland, Auckland

Helen has practised in insurance law since her admission to the bar in 2003 and has a strong focus on liability insurance. Her practice is significantly concentrated on claims involving the legal profession, accountants and the financial services sector for which she provides claims handling, policy drafting and risk management advice.

Kirk Williams, CEO, Marsh, Auckland

Kirk has 30 years' insurance experience both as an underwriter and broker, for the last seven years he has been the CEO of Marsh NZ. His experience extends across all disciplines of insurance and he has a particular emphasis on ensuring that insurance is not simply an annual purchase and payment of premium but is an integrated function within a risk management framework. His philosophy is that if this isn't understood, then significant value can be lost. He presents regularly to a broad range of industry groups on risk and insurance.
