

PRESENTER

Rachael Schmidt-McCleave, Barrister, Wellington

Rachael has worked in public and private practice in NZ and the UK since mission in 1996 and joined the Independent Bar in 2014. Rachael has extensive expertise in public law and judicial review, and is an experienced investigator, mediator, and the co-author of Health and Safety in NZ: Know the Law. She has advised both the Ministry of Education and schools on a range of issues including employment law, health and safety, contractual disputes and duty of care, as well as administrative law and process issues.

The statements and conclusions contained in this paper are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
