

PRESENTER

Robbie Muir, Land Information New Zealand, Wellington

Robbie Muir has extensive experience as a solicitor in the area of land title registration. He was appointed to the position of Registrar-General of Land for New Zealand in 2000. Robbie was involved in the development of Landonline and related legislative reforms to enable electronic registration. He is charged with regulatory oversight of the title system and works closely with the NZLS Property Law Section on education and compliance arrangements for property lawyers. His office is currently engaged in further legislative reform, following work with the Law Commission on a review of the Land Transfer Act 1952. Robbie is also a contributor to property law publications and has presented at various seminars and conferences on conveyancing and title registration over the years.
