

PRESENTERS

David Patterson, Chapman Tripp, Wellington

David specialises in corporate and international taxation. He has a proven track record for over 25 years of legal practice: in commercial and tax structuring and financing of a wide range of commercial arrangements and their negotiation and documentation, and in settling tax disputes with IRD on terms favourable to clients.

Campbell Rose, Deloitte, Auckland

Campbell is a Deloitte tax partner with significant experience in transaction services, financial services, and tax disputes/rulings. Over his career, he has advised clients on mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructures, financings and managed funds in a wide variety of domestic and cross-border transactions (including obtaining binding rulings/indicative views). Campbell has also regularly represented clients at all stages of the Inland Revenue investigation and dispute process, including litigation support and negotiating settlements.
